

Black Literary Award Winners

The theme of the library display for Black History Month is "Black Recipients of Distinguished Literary Awards".

The display runs through February and highlights black writers or illustrators that have received various literary awards such as the Pulitzer Prize, Newbery Award, Caldecott Honor Award, the Coretta Scott King Award and other distinguished literary awards.

The following are individuals that are showcased:

Rita Dove
August Wilson
Alice Walker
Toni Morrison
Christopher Paul Curtis
Walter Dean Myers
Virginia Hamilton
John Steptoe
Brian Pinkney

Brief biographies and copies of their works also on displayed.