SLO/PLO Assessment Status:

Data Analysis:

Commendations: The committee commends the Library on the following:

Keeping the doors open after the flood; all of the people working in that facility went above and beyond to find ways to keep things going for the students when the main facility was closed. Great job!

The goal of better understanding of how student spaces are used is excellent. We know through Guided Pathways work that building communities of students leads to improved retention and success for students, so this should yield interesting information.

Recommendations: The committee recommends the following: N/A

Additional Comments:

Question...What percentage of our students actually use the library facilities? Do we know?

Additional Evidence Provided During the Presentation: N/A
