

Earth Science Comprehensive Program Review 2018-2019 Technology Request

The Earth Science Program has been rebuilt in the last several years (beginning in the 2016-17 academic year), curricula have been updated, and courses redesigned with a focus on active learning. After the redevelopment phase, enrollment is showing an upward trend. This increase in enrollment in recent semesters suggests that enrollment is likely to continue to increase in the future.