

CUYAMACA COLLEGE
COURSE OUTLINE OF RECORD

Arabic 120 – Arabic I

5 hours lecture, 5 units

Catalog Description

Introduction to the Arabic language and the culture of its speakers. Facilitates the practical application of the language in everyday oral and written communication at the beginning novice level. Since the focus is on basic communication skills, the class will be conducted in modern standard Arabic as much as possible. While becoming familiar with the Arabic speaking world, students will learn structures that will enable them to function in Arabic in everyday contexts.

Prerequisite

None

Course Content

- 1) Listening and speaking tasks organized around thematic units on simple everyday topics to convey greetings, make introductions, ask and answer questions appropriate to personal needs in and out of the classroom.
- 2) Presentation of Arabic geography, history, music, art, institutions, customs and cultures.
- 3) Discussions of cultural similarities and differences between the Arabic speaking world and other world cultures in areas such as the role of parents and children, the role and status of Arab women, religious holidays, education, and customs and traditions in general.
- 4) Presentation of grammar concepts to facilitate the acquisition of oral production of the language.
- 5) Development of writing skills to enable students to produce in writing what they can communicate orally.
- 6) Presentation of authentic reading material through library resources and Internet research.

Course Objectives

Students will be able to use language and vocabulary skills to:

- 1) Interpret and apply the Arabic alphabet and sound system in order to identify and use proper pronunciation when speaking.
- 2) Derive meaning from simple sentences in the present, and recognize parts of speech such as verbs, nouns, prepositions, subject pronouns, possessive pronouns, interrogatives, and the verb “to have.”
- 3) Write and say simple personal information.
- 4) Utilize appropriate vocabulary and grammatical structures presented in class to communicate greetings, answer short questions, relate simple personal information, and describe colors, food, and the Arab world map.
- 5) Compare and contrast Arabic culture and other world cultures.

Method of Evaluation

A grading system will be established by the instructor and implemented uniformly. Grades will be based on demonstrated proficiency in subject matter determined by multiple measurements for evaluation, one of which must be essay exams, skills demonstration or, where appropriate, the symbol system.

- 1) Written and oral exams that demonstrate students’ ability to read, write, and speak the Arabic sound system, vocabulary and grammar presented in class.

- 2) Written assignments in which students must use appropriate vocabulary and grammar presented in class.
- 3) Oral presentations that demonstrate students' ability to communicate personal information and daily routine activities.
- 4) Formative and summative quizzes given throughout the semester to measure the students' ability to utilize appropriate vocabulary and grammatical structures as identified in class.
