COURSE OUTLINE OF RECORD

ART 220 – PAINTING II

2 hours lecture, 4 hours laboratory, 3 units

Catalog Description

Continuation of Painting I with an emphasis on creative problem-solving skills. Students will develop a personal style of expression.

Prerequisite

“C” grade or higher or “Pass” in ART 121 or equivalent

Entrance Skills

Without the following skills, competencies and/or knowledge, students entering this course will be highly unlikely to succeed:

- 1) Apply the principles of design (harmony, variety, balance, movement, proportion) to create original paintings of increasing complexity and skill that reflect their feelings and points of view.
- 2) Analyze their original paintings as to personal direction and style.
- 3) Research two periods of painting and discuss their similarities and differences, using the language of the visual arts.
- 4) Describe the use of the elements of painting to express mood in one or more of their works of art.
- 5) Select three works of art from their art portfolio and discuss the intent of the work and the use of the paint media.
- 6) Analyze the works of a well-known painter and the effect the paint media has on the artist's style.
- 7) Apply various art-related theoretical perspectives to their own paintings and the paintings of others in classroom critique.
- 8) Develop written criteria for the selections of a body of paintings from their portfolio that represents significant achievements.
- 9) Prepare portfolios of their original paintings.

Course Content

- 1) Processing, analyzing, and responding to sensory information through the language and skills unique to the visual arts with an emphasis on painting at the intermediate level
- 2) Artistic processes and skills as developed through the paint media and used to communicate meaning and intent in the students’ original work
- 3) Responding to, analyzing, and making judgment about paintings and other works of art, including their own, according to the elements of art, the principles of design, and aesthetic qualities
- 4) Connecting and applying what is learned in painting to other art forms, subject areas, and careers

Course Objectives

Students will be able to:

- 1) Demonstrate in their own original paintings a personal style and an increasing proficiency in communicating an idea, theme, or emotion.
- 2) Use innovative visual metaphors in their original paintings.
- 3) Discuss a series of their original works of art, using the appropriate vocabulary of art.
- 4) Analyze their works of art as to personal direction and style.
- 5) Compare how distortion is used in photography or video with how the artist uses distortion in painting.
- 6) Describe the use of the elements of art to express mood in one or more of their works of art.

- 7) Select three works of art from their painting portfolio and discuss the intent of the work and the use of the media.
- 8) Prepare portfolios of their original paintings.

Method of Evaluation

A grading system will be established by the instructor and implemented uniformly. Grades will be based on demonstrated proficiency in subject matter determined by multiple measurements for evaluation, one of which must be essay exams, skills demonstration or, where appropriate, the symbol system.

- 1) Studio demonstrations and preparation and presentation of a portfolio which measure students' ability to apply artistic processes and skills, using paint media, to communicate meaning and intent in their original paintings.
- 2) Exams and/or quizzes and/or critiques and/or writing prompts which measure students' ability to perceive and respond to paintings, objects in nature, events, and the environment using the vocabulary of the visual arts to express their observations.
- 3) Exams and/or quizzes and/or critiques, writing prompts, and portfolio development which measure students' ability to analyze, assess, and derive meaning from works of art, including their own, according to the elements of art, the principles of design, and aesthetic qualities.
