2025-2026 Academic Senate Senators

The duties of the senators are:

- attend and participate in meetings of the Academic Senate,
- to appoint a proxy from their appropriate constituency group of regular or contract and part-time faculty to attend the meetings of the Academic Senate in their absence,
- to monitor and represent the interests of their constituency regarding academic and professional matters,
- to voice the concerns of their constituency regarding academic and professional matters,

- to vote in accordance with the input of the members of their constituency as well as their individual consciences, and
- to be responsible for the dissemination of information to and from their constituency in a timely manner.

Best Practices for Senators

- Use the “Save Your Own Google Doc Copy of the Agenda” link provided at the top of the agenda to make your own editable copy of the agenda that you can use for notes.
- Email notes promptly after meeting.
- Make sure to provide sufficient time for folks to be able to review notes and documents, and provide feedback before the next meeting.
- Use the “Constituency List and Email Template” listed above (and included on the agenda) to make sure you are contacting all constituents in your area (it includes an email template for sending out meeting notes).
 - If there are any mistakes on the list, please let Karen Marrujo know!
- Create a “Contact List” (also called “distribution list”) in Outlook to make emailing notes to constituents easier. Link: “How to Create a Contact Group in Outlook” by Microsoft Support
- Highlight upcoming action items and important updates.
- Clearly communicate what are the pending action items.
- Provide a clear date for when you need to receive feedback so that you can include it in the next meeting.
- Feel free to send questions to the Academic Senate President.

Fall 2025-Spring 2026 Senators and Constituencies

The table below lists the current senator, department chairs, and full-time faculty for all Academic Senate constituency areas. Senators for each constituency are expected to email all FT faculty in their area. This means senators should email the department chairs and full-time faculty listed below for their constituency. They are also encouraged to include Part-Time faculty in that area.
