X. Special Orders

1. President Robinson

a. Updates about ASG relocation
   i. Still waiting on furniture to arrive, there has been delays due to having a new vendor ii. Timeline looks like it may be happening during the Fall
b. Information about how President Robinson can support ASG
   i. Will contact Lloyd Ward through email to learn more about how ASG feels and other communities to see how to help them best
c. Commencement speech advice i. President Robinson suggests that ASG keeps physical or electronic proof of ASG discussions in regards to these issues in order to keep different parties accountable
   ii. President Ribonson will also email the president about future goals for the future board to keep in mind and word towards
   iii. Write a proposal once the discussion is had

2. VP Marron

a. Furniture update
   i. New furniture is supposed to arrive June 22nd, but no guarantee considering there has been previous delays ii. We do have a new vendor iii. New layout (refer to figure 1) can potentially include a space for storage for all the student organizations iv. Rendering for the bookstore space comes today, but it will be presented next week on Friday's meeting
   v. The layout is done to have an open space concept due to the regulations closed spaces faces (sprinklers, smoke detectors, etc)
   vi. Timeline looks as follows:
      1. June 7th is when the official contract finishes with the bookstore

2. We can finally begin demolishing the space and shaping it to fit the 4-5 student organizations (ASG, Together We Rise, Rising Scholars, Puente, Umoja)

vii. The big windows in the front will be privacy windows viii. Personal offices cannot be accommodated for, but they will try (highly unlikely)

ix. The old ASG room's usage is up in the air, it might be for a student parent area type of purpose, but it will be decided as we near the change of the bookstore.

3. Senior Dean Hays

a. Information about the timeline of the school's accreditation and how it's going

i. Online courses need more compliance in the eyes of the federal government and that's our school's only "weakness" at the moment

ii. Federal government gave standards to follow for online courses rather than each individual college making their own iii. The accreditation team will be back in the Fall (September 21st and 22nd) to talk to the students and get more feedback

b. Gave out a survey for ASG to complete in return for grad shirts
