Educational Plan Summary

My plan is to finish at Cuyamaca and transfer to SDSU fall of 2008. My major is Graphic Design and I plan on taking more courses in this area and in the Arts department. The majority of the classes I need to take prior to transfer are general education, graphic design and art classes. I found this out by going to a counselor at Cuyamaca College. I found out that one graphic design class that I took will not be transferable to SDSU. Because I met with counselor, I had this question answered. My class is actually transferable right now, but anyone who takes this class after this semester cannot transfer it to SDSU.

By meeting with a counselor I found out that I am actually closer to my goal of transferring than I realized! It has made me excited and more enthused to go to school. I feel more confident and happier since meeting with a counselor. I am amazed at the progress I've made and how my work does pay off.
