Cannibals, Savages, Heathens: Demystifying Aztec/Mexica Culture and Society October 14, 2021 | 11 am to 12 pm

Presented by: Javier Gonzalez-Meeks

This year marks the 500th anniversary of the fall of Tenochtitlan, the Aztec/Mexica capital city. Much of our information about this period comes from Spanish sources; indigenous sources provide a different story, one that challenges the myths and stereotypes perpetuated by Spanish authors.

Impact of "Cultural Portals": Ethnic Identity Development for Filipinx-Americans

October 14, 2021 | 12 to 1 pm

Presented by: Jason Astorga and Daniel Fernandez
What does it mean to be Filipinx-American? "Cultural Portals" are access points to one's heritage and culture. As Filipinx-Americans, what are some ways we can access a connection to our indigenous culture? Come to this workshop to explore our own Filipinx-American identity, and learn about ways in which we can expand our own "Filipinx-ness"
