Veteranos & Valor: The Filipino Experience in the US Military

November 12, 2021 | 10am to 11am

Presented by: James Diokno

The Filipino community is one of the largest ethnic groups in the San Diego region. A large reason why they are here is because of the US Navy. Since the days of US Colonization of the Philippine Islands over a hundred years ago, Filipinos have been a highly visible presence in the US military. This workshop and presentation will shed light on why and how Filipinos have been an integral part of the US armed forces. Discussion will center on the role of the Philippines as a colonized territory in this phenomenon, as well as the economic factors driving this tradition.
