

Adjectives Work Sheet

Part I: Underline the correct word(s) in the parentheses.

1. In Egypt, silver was once (more valued, most valued) than gold.
2. It is (good, better) to help a person with a task instead of doing the task for them.
3. Our new teacher is (more smart, smarter) than the last.
4. The (little, less) time I spend focusing on the negative, the happier I feel.

Part II: Underline the adjective that modifies the bolded noun in each sentence.

1. The enormous elephant loved food.
2. The quick frog hopped over the puddle.
3. Her little cat was lost.
4. Those light-blue flowers are rare.
5. An old man yelled at the sky.

Part III: Underline the group of words in the parentheses that show the adjective(s) in their correct order.

1. The (big brown bunny, brown big bunny) hopped across the lawn.
2. At the bar, Lolita sang a (Spanish classic, classic Spanish) song for Karaoke Night.
3. The incessant screeching of our neighbor's rooster is very (annoying, annoyed).
4. The long hike up the mountain left Juliet feeling (exhausting, exhausted).
5. Bianca wore a (leather black jacket, black leather jacket) over a lacy top.

Adjectives Answer Key

Part I:

1. In Egypt, silver was once more valued than gold.
2. It is better to help a person with a task instead of doing the task for them.
3. Our new teacher is smarter than the last.
4. The less time I spend focusing on the negative, the happier I feel.

Part II:

1. The enormous elephant loved food.
2. The quick frog hopped over the puddle.
3. Her little cat was lost.
4. Those light-blue flowers are rare.
5. An old man yelled at the sky.

Part III:

1. The big, brown bunny hopped across the lawn.
2. At the bar, Lolita sang a classic Spanish song for Karaoke Night.
3. The incessant screeching of our neighbor's rooster is very annoying.
4. The long hike up the mountain left Juliet feeling exhausted.
5. Bianca wore a black leather jacket over a lacy top.