Helpful Videos for Writing

Video Title	Link to the Video	Why is this video helpful?
How to Organize Your Essay	https://youtu.be/8X5WoCHhtCM	This video is a perfect example of how you can organize your essay. The essay provides examples, diagrams, and explains each portion of the essay in a simple manner.
How to Use Commas in English Writing	https://youtu.be/keZpj7PjNEo	Many students ask how to use comas properly. This video exemplifies the proper times to use a comma by providing helpful examples.
Topics Sentences vs. Thesis	https://youtu.be/ygscce2dSBU	This video is very helpful because it shows the difference between a topic sentence and thesis statement. It also provides examples of how to write good topic sentences and thesis statements.
How to Write a Strong Conclusion	https://youtu.be/7gf71u-b-xo	This video goes through the specific components of a conclusion. Breaking it down to its simplest components. She also provides various examples of how to restate a thesis statement, summarize each boy paragraph, and how to conclude with your final thoughts.
The simple summary	https://youtu.be/V-ki6TP4EYs	Many students have difficulty writing a summary. This video explains it in a very simple and effective way.
Transition Words and How to use Them	https://youtu.be/FCBuIYReXVw	Using transition signals in writing is important. This video puts translation signals in categories and explains when and why to use them.
Learn to Write Introduction Paragraph	https://youtu.be/4WDclqoGouY	This video explains the three parts of the introduction paragraph, so the student can learn to write an introduction for any essay.
Learn to Write a	https://youtu.be/Zd0tP2undNo	The conclusion is the paragraph that many students

Video Title	Link to the Video	Why is this video helpful?
Conclusion in Under Five Minutes		have a hard time to organize. This video is effective for students because it discusses the three main parts of the conclusion and gives examples for each part.